Sage 50 Accounts

Sage 50 Accounts is a market leading accounts software that makes managing your customers, suppliers and day to day finances easy.

From invoicing customers and paying suppliers, to managing VAT returns and year-end accounts, it helps you manage all the different areas of your business efficiently and on time, keeping your cash flow healthy. By keeping things simple, it frees up your time to focus on your customers and your business.

Easy to use accounting software

Ideal for Small to Medium Enterprises and Owner Managed Businesses, the key features of the Sage 50 Accounts package include:

- Dashboard views for complete control of cash flow, with instant views of customer or supplier debt
- Efficient data entry and complete financial analysis
- Online filing for VAT returns

- Powerful and flexible report designer, including batch reports
- Capacity to add additional users and multiple companies
- Integration with Sage Pay, for immediate online card payments
- The ability to view Sage data on a Blackberry or Apple mobile phone, including creation of orders, quotes and invoices along with providing a quick overview of customer, supplier and financial details
- The software has been improved to run faster on a network, or where there are a large number of transactions, meaning that certain processes that previously took minutes can now be completed in seconds
- The ability to specify a date before which transactions cannot be posted
- A quick search field which will search across your Sage data without having to build search criteria

Outsourcing Financial Administration and Payroll

Hart Shaw is one of the leading independent firms of Chartered Accountants and Business Advisers.

Our Outsourcing department can assist with all your general bookkeeping requirements, either at your office or ours. You may require help to write up books or assistance with adding the finishing touches to information on bookkeeping systems in order to create your own management information.

Running a payroll can be time consuming and complicated, diverting resources from the core activities of your business. Outsourcing this activity can help relieve this pressure and Hart Shaw can offer cost effective solutions. We are able to provide a fully compliant, complete service, whatever the size or complexity of your business, or simply provide support when needed.

As a Director of numerous businesses which Hart Shaw provide Sage support, I have found them to be a totally professional firm to deal with, and have used them for over 20 years now. I have recommended Hart Shaw on numerous occasions, each time receiving a very positive response.
